Annular and Unstructured web-magazines

Fourth Door runs two web-magazines, Unstructured and Annular.

The new re-launched Unstructured features an enhanced architectural section, Sitelines. Features include the architectural, engineering and planning dimension of Germany's Stuttgart 21 controversy, a special report on the emergence of Passivhaus in Britain, Peter Zumthor in London,

Danish practice Vand Kunsten's Adaptive Futures research, and a photo-essay on Studio in the Woods by Ioana Marinescu. Unstructured also continues to feature art-focused and other pieces.

Annular provides a web-portal into the new twenty-first timber architecture and design communities, profiling new buildings and projects from across Europe. Annular's new edition includes a focus the emergence of timber hi-rise across Europe, how Massive wood came to Britain, and Helsinki's Wood School and other Finnish projects.
